TORONTO RESIDENTS' ACCESS TO CRTC

OTTAWA/HULL -- The CRTC announces the closing of its office in Toronto to the public, effective June 30, 1995, due to budgetary restrictions imposed by the Government. The Ontario Regional Commissioner, Gail Scott, will continue to be resident in Toronto and will carry out her duties from a new location yet to be identified.

Toronto area residents will continue to have easy access to the CRTC by dialing its local telephone number (416) 973-2782. For comments or information requests dealing specifically with broadcasting matters, callers may also dial (819) 997-0313. Similarly, telecommunications enquiries may be directed to (819) 997-0272.

CRTC public notices will continue to clearly indicate where public documents relating to any application or proceeding of interest to Toronto area residents may be consulted.
